Brand Guidelines

Why is this guide important?

These guidelines outline the general rules when using The CPD Group brand assets. You may only use the approved brand assets that are provided to you by The CPD Group. Any other logos or images are not approved for use.

Who is this guide for?

These guidelines are for customers that have been provided with any logo(s) by The CPD Group. The Brand Guidelines cover the use of logos on:

- Documentation such as Letterheads, Business Cards and other avenues of formatting.
- Marketing and Advertising Activities such as Websites and Social Media
- Certificates.
- Branding and promotion of Registered Activities.
- Branding and promotion of Provider Activities.

Branding guidelines are not solely limited to just the above avenues If you do have any queries, please contact: info@thecpd.group

Brand Guidelines

The CPD Group Rosette Logo

How Can I Use The CPD Group Logo?

For representing your affiliation with The CPD Group only. When your free Provider approval application has been processed and awarded, you will be granted a non-exclusive licence to use The CPD Group logo on your Promotional Materials, Website and Social Media Platforms.

Where The CPD Group logo CAN be used:

Any marketing or promotional materials that are used to promote your organisation only, such as social media, website homepage, letterheads, business cards etc.

Where The CPD Group logo CANNOT be used:

Anything relating to a CPD Training Course or CPD Activity i.e Certificates, Activity Promotion, Activity Listing on Website

Using this logo in a way that is not permitted by The CPD Group, as defined by this Brand Guidelines document, may result in your account being suspended and your accreditation being withdrawn.

NOTE: You must NOT use this, The CPD Group logo, to imply that your CPD Training Courses or CPD Activities are accredited by us.

Approved Provider Logo

How Can I Use The CPD Approved Provider Logo?

For the approval of your company only.
When becoming an approved provider with The CPD Group, you will receive a unique logo with your provider number.

Where your Provider logo CAN be used:

Any marketing or promotional materials that are used to promote your organisation only, such as social media, website homepage, letterheads, business cards etc.

Where your Provider logo CANNOT be used:

Anything relating to an activity i.e certificates, activity promotion, activity listing on website.

The logo should be linked to your provider profile on The CPD Register.

Being an approved Provider does not mean that your activities are accredited.

Falsifying logos may result in your account being suspended and your approval being withdrawn.

NOTE: You must NOT use this, approval Provider logo, to imply that your CPD Training Courses or CPD Activities are accredited by us.

Accredited Activity Logo

How can I use my accredited activity logo?

For the accreditation of a single activity only.
Once your activity is accredited with The CPD Group, you will receive a unique activity logo with your verifiable accreditation number.

Where your Activity logo CAN be used:

Anything relating to the specific activity the logo is accredited for i.e Certificates, activity promotion, activity listing on website

Where your Provider logo CANNOT be used:

Any generic marketing that does not refer to the specific activity such as social media, website homepage, letterheads, business cards etc.

Each activity logo should be linked to the corresponding activity on The CPD Register.

Activities are only accredited once they have a unique logo and number and are listed on The CPD Register.

Having one activity accredited by The CPD Group does not mean all other Activities you have are accredited too.

Falsifying logos may result in your account being suspended and your accreditation being withdrawn.
